Handing over of security of Red Fort to CISF

3369. PROF. M SANKARALINGAM: Will the Minister of TOURISM AND CULTURE be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Government have decided to handover the security of historic Red Fort to Central Industrial Security Force (CISF);

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) what prompted Government to come to this conclusion; and

(d) if so, whether Government are considering similar decision in connection with other historic monuments in different parts of the country?

THE MINISTER OFTOURISM AND CULTURE (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) to (c) After the decision of the Central Government to develop the Red Fort as one of the cultural and tourism hubs in the country it was felt necessary to get the entire complex vacated by the Army besides attending to conservation, preservation and development of various monuments located therein and the area around. As a result of the inter-ministerial discussions, it has been decided that the Army would vacate the entire Red Fort in phases beginning April, 2003. On 8 April, 2003 the Army has handed over the buildings and open area occupied by the Supply Platoon in Red Fort besides eight security posts.

Accordingly, the Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) has taken over the security of the area under the control of the Archaeological Survey of India from 8 April, 2003 and 205 personnel have till date been deployed in the Red Fort complex. The Central Government have also started a massive programme of conservation and preservation of various buildings under protection, landscaping the open areas and overall development of the entire complex keeping in view the requirements of the tourists. Details of the works are annexed at Statement (See belowj.
